

Letter from Charles Eustis Hubbard to Alexander Graham Bell, July 17, 1880, with transcript

Copy of a letter from the Clerk of the American Bell Telephone Company announcing the vote by the Directors of the Company of hearty congratulations to Alexander Graham Bell on receiving the Volta Prize. Original letter on file in "Dr. Bell's Room" in "Honors." Boston, Massachusetts. July 17th, 1880. Professor Alexander Graham Bell, L.L.D. My dear Sir:

I take great pleasure in informing you that at a meeting of the Directors of the American Bell Telephone Company, it was unanimously "Voted" that the hearty congratulations of the Board be extended to Professor Alexander Graham Bell, upon the occasion of the receipt by him of the 'Volta Prize' awarded by the French Academy."

Very truly yours, Charles Eustis Hubbard. Clerk of American Bell Telephone Co.